James Tully Convicted Of Manslaughter

James P. Tully was found guilty of involuntary manslaughter in Adams County court Friday evening at 6:10 o'clock. The jury which deliberated for more than three hours recommended leniency.

Tully, 25, 351 E. King St., was the driver of a car which was overturned on May 28 on the Fairfield-Ortanna Rd., fatally injuring W. "Billy" Renner Jr., Fairfield R. 1, a sailor home on leave and a passenger in the car. Also injured was Bruce E. Fitz, 11, Littlestown, a passenger and nephew of Tully.

Testimony developed by State Policeman Gerald Kruba established that the men, enroute to Renner's home, had visited a number of taverns in the vicinity during the evening. Tully told the court that he had about six beers in six hours preceding the accident and had misjudged the curve.

HAD OVERTURNED

Kruba testified that he found the car being south had gone off the road and overturned. Renner had apparently been thrown from the car and fatally injured, while Tully was pinned by his ankle under the car.

Marks on the roadway indicated that the car had been off the left side of the road for 60 feet, had crossed the road and traveled another 80 feet before hitting an abutment. It then traveled another 136 feet before stopping on its top.

AUTO DAMAGES IN 3 MISHAPS TOTAL $1,575

Damage totaled $1,575 in three auto accidents investigated by state police.

Wilbur Lee Thomas, 49, Newport News, Va., paid a fine of $10 and costs on a bad pass charge before Justice of the Peace John Whitman, Cumberland Twp., following an accident at 6:05 o'clock Friday evening 1/4 mile south of here at the intersection of the Emmitsburg Rd. and the Peach Orchard Rd. State police estimated damage at $500 to each of the cars involved.

According to the officers, Thomas was driving south and sought to make a left turn into the Peach Orchard Rd. in the path of a northbound auto driven by William L. Kockenour, 37, York. The York driver was unable to stop quickly enough and his car crashed into the front of the Thomas vehicle.

CAR DEMOLISHED

A car was demolished, with the damage estimated at $900, when it skidded off the Biglerville Rd. and struck an embankment a mile north of here at midnight. State police said Pauline E. Wright, 18, Biglerville, the driver, and her 13-year-old brother, Daniel Eugene Wright, a passenger in the car, were shaken up but otherwise unhurt in the accident.

Damage totaled $275 when a car and truck collided at 6:30 o'clock this morning at the intersection of the Ortanna-Mt. Carmel Rd. Police said Floyd King, 50, Ortanna, driving the truck, which had $25 worth of damage, pulled out of the intersection into the side of a car driven by Kenneth A. Baumgardner, 16, Ortanna R. 1.

MANY PRIZES TO BE GIVEN AT SMF NEXT WEEK

Chairmen of the various departments of the South Mountain Fair today made a last minute appeal for exhibits.

Guy Beamer, Aspers, chairman of the horticulture committee, reminded that a bushel of apples could be worth $20 at the fair—if it was divided into the competitions for plates, trays and sixteen and won all the prizes.

While doubting that any one bushel would win all the prizes, Beamer said that not only will there be many cash awards, but the best plate, best tray and the best 16 apples of any variety each will receive awards.

The awards are $3 first, $2 second and $1 third for plates of five specimens each; $4, $3 and $2 for trays, and $3 $2, $1 for the Red Delicious, Double Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, Grimes Golden, York Imperial, Red York, Stayman, Red Stayman, Rome Beauty, Red Rome Beauty, Jonathan and Red Jonathan varieties. In addition prizes of $2, $1 and 75 cents for plates, $4, $3 and $2 for trays and $3, $2 and $1 for sixteen will be given for any other standard varieties of apples.

Similar prizes will be awarded for plates, trays sixteen of peaches and for plates of five (Continued On Page 3)

PCA Membership Drive Is Underway

The Pennsylvania Citizens Association is conducting a statewide membership campaign. The work in Adams County is being conducted by Dr. W. E. Tilberg and Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, members of the board of directors from this district.

SETTLE VOTING PROBLEMS FOR NEW DISTRICTS

The dividing line for Mt. Pleasant Township's two new voting districts was decided, location of the voters in the two Mt. Pleasant districts and Bonneville was determined, and the method of placing candidates' names on the ballots for offices in November outlined at a meeting of party and township officials of Mt. Pleasant and Bonneville with the county commissioners at the courthouse Friday evening.

Final decision was made at the meeting dividing Mt. Pleasant into two districts, No. 1 and No. 2, with the Centennial-Lincoln Highway road, Route 01005, as the principal dividing line. Near Centennial, the dividing line leaves 01005 at its intersection with Route 01068 and follows Route 01068 south to Route 116 — the Gettysburg-Hanover Rd.

The "spur" towards the south was agreed upon because it formerly marked one of the dividing lines in the prior division of the township into three voting districts, and because the southern turn of the line prevented dividing Centennial (Mt. Rock) into two different districts.

CHANGES MOVED

In general the new division turns most of what had been Mt. Pleasant No. 2 into Mt. Pleasant No. 1. What had been Mt. Pleasant No. 1 and what remains of Mt. Pleasant No. 3 fater the removal of Bonneville become Mt. Pleasant No. 2.

According to the commissioners, the voting place for the new Mt. Pleasant No. 2 will be Square Corners, and the voting place for the new Mt. Pleasant No. 1 will be near Kohler's School.

The group then went, name by name, over the more than 1,000 voters in the township and new borough, with those present telling the commissioners whether the persons named resided in the new Mt. Pleasant No. 1 and 2 or in the new borough of Bonneville so that new voting lists may be made for use at the November election.

DATE IS SET

September 20 was announced as the date by which all names of candidates must be in the hands of the county election board.

The discussion between the commissioners, Commissioners' Clerk Crosby Hartzell, Republican County Chairman H. Earl Pitzer, Democratic County Chairman Fred G. Klunk and Attorney Oscar Spicer and Eugene Hartman showed this series of steps necessary in setting up the new borough of Bonneville and the new division of the Mt. Pleasant Twp. election districts:

All candidates for office in Mt. Pleasant Twp. who reside in Bonneville must now withdraw from those candidacies, since after January 1 they will no longer live in Mt. Pleasant Twp. (Continued On Page 3)

MEN CHARGED HERE LINKED TO OTHER CASE

Three aluminum siding salesmen charged with cheating by false pretense in the sale of siding in Adams County are also involved in an investigation being conducted by Philadelphia District Attorney James C. Crumlish Jr. at the request of Supreme Court Justice-designate Anna X. Alperin in one of her last official acts as attorney general of Pennsylvania.

Joseph Seidman, 53, Glenolden; Irving Jack Page, 43, Philadelphia, and Barry Marks, 33, Wynnwood, were arrested here Aug. 16 on charges of cheating by false pretense and conspiring together to cheat by false pretense after they visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford C. Dick, Freedom Twp., and other homes in the county to sell the families aluminum siding under a plan whereby the person buying the siding would get it "free," by receiving commissions when others in the neighborhood bought siding. The proposal was that the homes selected would be "model homes." A contract was then offered which provided for payments over a long period of time for the siding. According to the complaint, two of the men used fictitious names in dealing with Mr. and Mrs. Dicks.

PHILLY ANGLE

They were later released on $3,000 bail each to appear for the next term of court after pleading innocent before Justice of the Peace Anne Thompson here. News stories from Philadelphia reveal that Attorney General Alperin had asked an investigation of Wide World Distributors, Inc., of Philadelphia.

The attorney general said complaints made to her by two Philadelphia area residents concerning the operations of Wide World were "clear cut illustrations of a culture preying upon the weak and helpless."

Marks, Seidman and Page were identified in the Philadelphia news articles as the former sales manager and salesmen for the now defunct Wide World firm which sold a half million dollars (Continued On Page 3)

Regier, New York, executive secretary of the National Council of Churches Division of Home Missions; Rev. Dr. Stewart W. Delegates from every state are expected to attend the convention.

Use Radar Here

The first radar unit in this area went into operation Friday morning about a mile north of the Mason-Dixon line on Rt. 15. Cpl. C. W. Hamberger, of the York substation, said that by 2 p.m. "eight motorists had been stopped." In the top photo the state police car parked along the highway has the electronic radar unit on the rear fender. The unit picks up the speed waves of the oncoming cars, which in turn are transmitted to the indicator dial above the dashboard shown in the lower photo. The dial registers the speed such as an ordinary speedometer in a car does.

Will Publish Manuscript On Official U.S. Census In 1960

WASHINGTON, D. C. — What was the United States like on the eve of the Civil War?

The Census Bureau and the National Civil War Centennial Commission are combining efforts in an attempt to give the answer, jointly publishing a manuscript based on the official census taken in 1860, said to be one of the most illuminating surveys of a nation ever made.

The finished publication is expected to be ready within the next 60 days. It will be distributed through the Government Printing Office.

In making the announcement, Karl S. Betts, executive director of the commission, said he looked upon publication of the manuscript as one of the most valuable contributions in the interest of the public that could be made during the 100th anniversary of the Civil War.

MUCH INFORMATION

Prepared by Census Bureau editors and statisticians, the manuscript includes information on population, slavery, immigration, education, popular representation, mortality, diseases and causes of death, products of industry, banks and insurance, real and personal property values, agriculture, the public press, railroads, and tonnage.

An 1861 map of the United States, Broadway illustrations, notable persons of the period, and dozens of pictures will be included.

"Observance of the Civil War Centennial has created a widespread interest in the America of 100 years ago," a Census Bureau spokesman said in making the manuscript available. "Interest at the Bureau of the Census led us back to the 1860 Census reports which tell much about the conditions of the country on the eve of the conflict. This was prepared under the leadership of Joseph Camp Griffith Kennedy, one of the most distinguished statisticians of the 19th century, a man who brought to the census reports as extensive knowledge of the history and characteristics of the subjects he discussed. He was versed in compiling statistics of significant military action."

Cunha Mello, first secretary of the Senate, said in Brasilia a caucus of congressional and party leaders had approved the decision for Goulart's inaugural at 1 p.m. Monday.

Officials said the plans were based on the assumption that by then Congress would approve a constitutional amendment setting up a parliamentary system in Brazil. Under Janio Quadros who resigned as president a week ago, Brazil's system of government was similar to the United States.

BATTLE 'N CONGRESS

Senate President Moura Andrade told the Senate Friday night Goulart had agreed to the constitutional change to set up a parliamentary system, but there were hints Goulart's supporters in Congress might try to block it on grounds he was already president with the right to full powers.

Goulart, who was on a trip to Red China and other Far Eastern points when Quadros resigned, hastened to Paris last Sunday to await developments and map plans for his return. He flew to Montevideo Thursday, then made the hop to Porto Alegre Friday night.

Ex-President Scores Slash In Foreign Aid

Former President Eisenhower Friday afternoon said it was "incomprehensible" for the House Appropriation Committee to slash more than $700 million dollars from the Foreign Aid bill.

In a 150-word statement General Eisenhower called on Republicans and Democrats to "join me in urging vigorous support of efforts to remedy the damage that would result" if the slash became effective.

CALLS FOR SUPPORT

His statement, released at his offices here shortly before 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, follows:

"I am gravely concerned to learn that, after a long struggle over the financing method to be used in connection with the mutual security program and after repeated assurances on the part of leading Democrats and Republicans continuing support of the program itself, an attempt is now under way to slash the program's appropriations."

"It is my understanding that the House appropriations committee has recommended some $700 million dollars below my own annual estimates of last January, and some $900 million dollars below the authorization approved only recently."

"These reductions strike most heavily, it appears, against such programs as military assistance and what was formerly known as defense support. These slashes are incomprehensible to me, especially in the light of present world tensions. I am sure that the large majority of thinking American citizens, Democrats and Republicans alike, will join me in urging vigorous support of efforts to remedy the damage that would result from these reported committee recommendations."

The statement was released too late to be published in Friday's Times. However, WGET and the Mutual Broadcasting System broadcast the announcement five minutes after it was released.

COURT HANDS DOWN VERDICTS IN MANY CASES

Bernard F. Rosensteel, 20, 645 Johns St., was sentenced to from three to 12 months in the Adams County jail starting July 27 on a morals charge and given a similar sentence to run concurrently on a charge of furnishing intoxicants to minors and contributing to the delinquency of minors by the Adams County Court this morning.

He was ordered to pay the costs in the cases and also ordered to pay the costs on a mere morals offense on which he was sentenced to the three to six months.

The more serious charge was dropped at the request of District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter who said he was not pressing the case because the reputation of the girl does not justify protection.

Borough Policeman Raymond Menges told the court that he had found Rosensteel and three other young men, two of whom are juveniles, with beer in their car. He said that he had told the juveniles to go home "but made the mistake of leaving the beer in the car." Later that night he found the two juveniles drinking beer at Rosensteel's home and brought the charge of furnishing intoxicants to minors and contributing to the delinquency of minors against him. He added that in the course of his investigation he learned about the 14-year-old girl and brought the other charges.

Borough Councilman Clyde DeHass and Rev. Fr. William Michaelman, Philadelphia, said Rosensteel was a hard worker, a good neighbor and a good supporter of his family.

JUDGE'S REMARK

Judge W. C. Sheely said he knew of Rosensteel's family and added, "You had no right to treat your family and your wife this way."

Joel King Miller, Mt. Holly Springs, a former Marine sergeant, was sentenced to from six to 12 months in the Allegheny County Workhouse with the sentence to start July 10. Miller was found guilty this week on a morals charge involving his sister-in-law.

James P. Tully, 351 E. King St., Littlestown, found guilty Friday evening by a jury which recommended leniency on a charge of involuntary manslaughter, was given a suspended sentence on condition he pay $300 and the costs. The court told him it had been impressed by his manner during the trial and that apparently the jury did not feel he was intoxicated at the time of the fatal accident which had led to the charge against him.

SUSPENDED SENTENCES

John W. Young Jr. and Amelia A. Livelberger, both of East Berlin, were given suspended sentences on a charge of book-making and placed on probation for one year on condition that each pay $500 and the costs plus the costs on another bookmaking case which was not pressed. Attorneys told the court that Miss Livelberger was not a principal in the case but merely an errand girl.

Dr. George E. Thomassey, Hanover, told the court he did not feel a jail sentence was advisable for Young because he suffers from severe diabetes, cirrhosis of the liver, high blood pressure and is extremely nervous.

Judge Sheely said that "there is such a thing of taking advantage of bad health" and he felt that Young might be doing so but that he would follow the (Continued On Page 2)

680,000 PERSONS DIED

Much interesting information is to be found in the census report, Mr. Betts said. It was compiled at a period when New York had 3,880,735 inhabitants, California 3,799,994, and Illinois 1,711,951.

Only 680,000 persons died in the nation that year, and but 5,000,000 persons were receiving instruction in the various educational institutions of the states.

The people were spreading west, and so was slavery, the report citing the numbers to be found among the Indian tribes of the Choctaw, Cherokee, Creek and Chickasaw nations west of Arkansas. But the number of escapees was dropping at such a rate that "the whole annual loss to the southern states from this cause bears less proportion to the amount of capital involved than the daily variations which in ordinary times occur in the fluctuations of state or government securities in the city of New York alone."

But that nation of a century ago was on the brink of a change. Never again would there be such a census with such statistics.

16 KILLED ON COUNTY ROADS IN 8 MONTHS

Sixteen persons were killed in automobile accidents on Adams County highways during the first eight months of 1961 according to state police reports.

The number compares with 15 during the same period a year ago. This year so far 152 persons have been injured in 221 auto accidents investigated by state police from the local substation. In the first two-thirds of 1960 the number was 200 in 259 accidents.

Property damage in this year's accidents so far exceeds that of the crashes during the first eight months of 1960. The figures are $194,640 for 1961 and $190,445 for 1960.

August's accidents exceeded the number for the same month in the Prior year, 39 to 37. However, where there was one person fatally injured and 27 less seriously hurt in the August 1961 accidents, there were five killed and 48 hurt in the August 1960 crashes.

$52,200 DAMAGE

Damage during August's 39 accidents was $52,200 damage compared to $30,825 in the same month of the prior year.

During last month there were 165 arrests made by state police, 15 of them on August 1. Of the 15 on August, 12 were for failure to have inspection stickers.

The officers concluded 27 investigations into crimes during the month and made 17 arrests on criminal charges as a result.

The officers gave driver examinations to 246 persons. 158 passed the test and 88 failed. They also gave eye tests to 192 persons with only four flunking the test.

Fifteen school bus driver examinations were given, with 12 passing and three failing. There were two special examinations of drivers and both passed the examination.

ADAMS COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

By MRS. W. R. SCHUBART

Restive children, waiting for school to open, might like to read the Legacy books which are described by the publisher as "exciting new versions of the great myths and legends of all time." Some surprisingly good authors have written for the series, Clifford Fadiman, for instance, did "The Story of the Young King Arthur," as well as several others and Orville Prescott wrote "Robin Hood."

Mushroom picking is a study. You can very well go fishing without ever looking at a book, but you jolly well better not go mushroom hunting without a field guide glued to your left hand. For while mushrooms can be among the most tasty of delicacies, they can also be paralyzing and deadly.

Contrary to a popular notion, mushrooms are less abundant in spring, and the bulk of them appear from midsummer to late October. Many varieties mature in Pennsylvania, each species having its own preferred habitat. Some grow on lawns or fields; others in oak woods or evergreen forests, and some grow only on decayed wood. They may resemble the common mushrooms of the supermarket, or they may look like warty shelves attached to a stump, or like rubber balls lying in the grass.

VARIOUS USES

Some edible species are best suited for soup making, others for frying as a meat substitute, and some (though not all) may safely be eaten raw in salads. They may also be dried, canned or pickled. Dried mushrooms are reactivated by soaking in milk or water, or they can be ground and used as a condiment.

In any case, careful identification of the plant is necessary, from its cap and gills down to the cup at its base which may be covered. All writers on the subject caution pickers to learn the characteristics of the pos-

More than 20 reactivated Civil War units will participate in the line of march past the reviewing stand in Public Square, where General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Gov. J. Millard Tawes and General Ulysses S. Grant III will take their accolades.

In addition to the colorful Civil War buffs, dressed in their individual blue or gray period costumes, at least six drum and bugle corps will participate, headed by the crack Old Guard Drum and Bugle Corps from Fort Myer, Va.

WEAR COLONIAL DRESS

MOSCOW (AP)—Mass meetings throughout the Soviet Union are being staged to show support for the nation's military buildup, the official Soviet news agency Tass reported today.

Reports of the meetings were featured in Moscow newspapers, with Pravda giving a full page to articles and letters from readers protesting what was characterized as "the sinister plans for unleashing a new war hatched by Western imperialists." Headlines said: "The U.S.S.R. is discharging its duty to mankind."

SEUL, South Korea (AP)—At least 22 persons were believed killed today when a stone and concrete embankment collapsed under heavy rainfall at a hillside residential area in Seoul.

National police said five families were trapped while asleep under their houses which were crushed as the embankment gave way in a torrential rain.

The legislature Friday adopted a conference committee report that would give the school $100,000, compared with the $54,000 proposed by the governor and $135,000 recommended by the Senate.

"GODLY JUSTICE"

In reverence we bow our heads . . . and silently we pray . . . for strength to face our troubles as . . . we go along the way . . . for health of body, mind and soul . . . in order to succeed . . . we always offer many prayers . . . whenever we're in need . . . God listens to each urgent plea . . . with contrite thought and care . . . He weighs each problem separately . . . with love beyond compare . . . sometimes He holds the answer back . . . until a later date . . . and we who pray are eager to . . . be told about our fate . . . but God is just and if He thinks . . . that our request is right . . . we'll know a sweet fulfillment of . . . the prayers we pray tonight.

plums, plates of five plums, plates of five pears and plates of three bunches of grapes.

Beamer said that judges like uniformity in size, excellence of color and freedom from blemishes in selecting winners and an entry that is characteristic of its variety is more likely to win than one made up of unusually large apples.

E. Philip Tyson, chairman of the photographic department, reminded of the awards for pictorial and portrait prints, color slides and eight and 16-millimeter silent movies. He stressed competition in the movies section of the show. Last year only two movies were entered. Prizes in each division are $3 first, $2 second and $1 third.

OTHER AWARDS

Clarence Waybright, chairman of the farm crops department, reminded it gives prizes for corn, small grains, soy beans, sorghum, hays and potatoes, including awards for the largest ear of corn and the largest potato.

Similar appeals for entries have been made by the vegetable department headed by Edwin Bushey, Arendtsville; the culinary department headed by Mrs. Guy Herring, Arendtsville; the needlework department of Mrs. Walter Frederick, Arendtsville; the flower departments' two chairmen, Mrs. John J. Hartlaub, Aspers, R. D., for artistic arrangements and Earl E. Carey, Biglerville, for individual flower entries; Clay Snyder, Gardners, for dairy and beef cattle; Owen Taylor, Biglerville R. 2, for sheep and swine.

The 4-H committee headed by Teresa Murren is seeking additional entries by 4-H Club members.

All pointed out that practically everyone has grown or made something that is unusually good and "the South Mountain Fair is the place to show it."

All of the exhibits must be placed by 6 p.m. Tuesday. Many departments will be open Monday to receive exhibits.

BERLIN (AP)—It hasn't anything to do with the crisis, but it's big news to the U.S. Army's Berlin command—German beer is back in the mess.

When the U.S. government's "buy American" campaign was put into effect last spring foreign beer disappeared at messes and post exchanges.

About two weeks ago, the "buy American" rule was quietly relaxed. Shortly afterward the German beers began foaming again over American bars throughout Germany.

A lot of other non-American items are expected to reappear on the post exchange counters.

"We found that people were buying them on the local economy anyway," one officer explained. "So we weren't really saving any dollars."

Misses Plane That Crashed Killing 78

SHARON, Pa. (AP) — Daniel Barnes was due to end a vacation with relatives here Thursday night and fly back to his home in Sherman Oaks, Calif. But he decided to stay another week and cancelled his reservation.

The TWA plane Barnes was supposed to take from Pittsburgh crashed Friday near Chicago, killing all 78 persons aboard.

Barnes formerly lived in Sharon. He was an umpire in the old Middle Atlantic Baseball League.

worth of appliances, TV sets, etc. during its existence.

LEHIGH ALUMINUM CO.

When the three were operating here they said they represented the "Lehigh Aluminum Co."

Here the men promised payments over a period of time for sales of aluminum siding to other householders as a result of the placing of siding on the "model houses."

At Philadelphia a somewhat similar system was used in connection with "referrals" the purchases were to make. The Philadelphia stories said "persons had paid triple and quadruple prices for appliances on the promise they would make tremendous amounts of money on commissions from customers they referred to the company."

REFERRAL SALES SYSTEM

Philadelphia District Attorney Crumlish termed the referral sales system, "operating much like a chain letter pyramid scheme, is inflating a dangerous bubble over the heads of persons who listen to slick talking salesmen. In some cases the persons have signed contracts under which they could lose their homes and other real estate if they do not keep up steep monthly payments to the company."

The Better Business Bureau of Philadelphia was quoted as saying that "10,577,696 persons would be required to make the scheme successful for each of the customers" in the referral scheme proposed.

In statements to Miss Alpern, one Philadelphia buyer reported purchasing a $279 TV set for $850, another reported signing to pay $720 for a $200 clothes dryer.

In its story on the Wide World operations a Philadelphia newspaper noted: "Instead of reaping commissions these persons (the buyers) now are being barraged with collection letters from finance companies to which Wide World had sold the contracts."

KENNEDY OFF ON HOLIDAY

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—President Kennedy enjoyed the company of his family today but none of the holiday weekend comfort of a man away from his problems. White House communications kept him abreast of world reaction to Russia's nuclear explosion.

Kennedy arrived here late Friday after the White House announced in Washington that Russia had set off a medium-range nuclear device — the signal confirming Moscow's announcement of Wednesday — that it would resume testing.

Before leaving the capital, Kennedy also had approved a statement charging the Soviets with launching a campaign to terrorize the world.

Kennedy offered no comment on the Soviet test itself, choosing at the moment to let the bare fact of the nuclear explosion sink in on the rest of the world.

Train Derailment Causes Short Delay

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Main line traffic on the Erie Lackawanna Railroad was blocked by a freight train derailment Friday night on a bridge high above the Lackawanna River and over the tracks of the Jersey Central and Delaware & Hudson Railroads.

No one was reported injured. Four cars of a 119-car diesel powered freight bound for Buffalo, N. Y., from Hoboken, N. J., were derailed, two of them tipping on their sides. The four were near the front of the train.

Cause of the accident was not known.

Railroad officials were unable to say when the main line could be reopened.

FIRST LABOR DAY FATALITY PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pennsylvania's first reported Labor Day weekend traffic fatality was a 2½-year-old Elwyn Ruiz, apparently on his way to a neighborhood candy store Friday night when he was run down by a hit-and-run driver.

LAST HOLIDAY OF SUMMER BEGINS TODAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pennsylvania joins the nation Monday in observing Labor Day, but already thousands of state residents are at seashore and mountain resorts and other fun spots, taking advantage of the full weekend.

The Weather Bureau forecast: warm and humid weather today and Sunday with highs in the upper 80s or low 90s. Scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers mostly over the west and central portions of the state were forecast for today and Sunday, possibly reaching the eastern portion by Sunday night.

POLICE PATROL ROADS

Officials urged motorists to use extreme caution in driving and extra state police details patrolled the Pennsylvania Turnpike and other highways.

State police also had radar details in use to halt speeders. The legal use of radar by state police became effective Friday.

Philadelphia Police Commissioner Albert Brown said he anticipated peak period congestion on the arterial exits of the city. Police patrols on the Schuylkill Expressway and bridge approaches were doubled.

The Pennsylvania Railroad scheduled 355 extra trains on its New York, Philadelphia, Washington line for the holiday period. Communities throughout the state scheduled prominent speakers from organized labor, government, education and the ministry for Labor Day addresses Monday.

SETTLE VOTING

The party committeemen and county chairmen must prepare a list of candidates for submission by September 20 to replace those withdrawn because of the change in residence. Among those affected will be Mt. Pleasant Justice of the Peace Eugene S. Long who will serve as justice of the peace of Mt. Pleasant to January 1. After that he probably will serve as justice of the peace in Bonneauville, for his name was prominently mentioned Friday night as a candidate for justice in Bonneauville. Long's candidacy in Mt. Pleasant will be among those that will have to be filed by someone else to be nominated by the political parties.

In addition to the changes on the Mt. Pleasant Twp. ballots, the two party committeemen must select two full slates for the new borough of Bonneauville. Candidates to be named in Bonneauville include a mayor; seven councilmen, of whom four will be elected for two years and three for four years; an assessor, a tax collector, three auditors, one for two years, one for four and one for six; one justice of the peace, one constable, one judge of elections, one majority inspector and one minority inspector.

While at its first election the borough of Bonneauville will elect some councilmen for two and others for four years, and auditors for two, four and six years, in succeeding elections all councilmen will be named for four years and all auditors for six.

The party officials were told they will not have to worry about the election boards to serve in November in Bonneauville and Mt. Pleasant 1 and 2. Those initial boards will be appointed by the court. Afterward the boards will be made up of the men and women named at elections.

Reds Suspected of Stalling Korean Cease-Fire Talks To Sabotage Frisco Peace Meet

United Nations armistice negotiations flew from Korea to Tokyo today as Allied headquarters said Reds "may be deliberately" delaying Korean war truce talks "to blackmail the rest of the world" at the Japanese peace conference in San Francisco.
Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, senior U. N. representative, and two other members of the five-man Allied cease-fire team—Lt. Gen. L. C. Craigie and Rear Adm. Arleigh Burke—arrived by plane at 7:30 p.m.

Presumably they will confer with the United Nations commander, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, on the stalled negotiations at Kaesong, Korea.

Records Show August Driest In Seven Years: The light showers over the weekend that so far have totaled less than a quarter inch brought little relief after the driest August experienced here in seven years.

Last month's rainfall totaled 1.82 inches, far short of the normal 4.61 inches. It was the driest August here since 1944 when the month's total was only 1.21 inches.

Most of August's rain fell in one hour Sunday afternoon, August 12 during a heavy electrical storm—too fast for most of to soak in and relieve an already serious water shortage.

Local Family "Amazed" over Recovery in Foreign Lands: Attorney and Mrs. Richard A. Brown and children, Tony and Virginia, Fairfield road, have returned from a three months tour of Europe "amazed" at the tremendous improvement in the European scene.

For Attorney Brown, who visited parts of Europe in 1947, the comparisons were particularly vivid.

One Belgium community which, when he visited it in 1947, was still 95 percent destroyed by World War II bombing, "is now about 95 percent rebuilt," Attorney Brown said today, "and the same conditions are holding true—although not to such a large extent—throughout Europe."

Today's Talk

WALK PAST YOUR LIMIT
We all have our limitations. But so far as I can find out, no one really knows just where to put his finger on them.

Usually your limitations are reached when you feel in your mind that there is no use in going further.

Whenever you feel you are nearing your limits, have but one thing in mind—to walk right past them. And you will.

Growth is a natural process. Just the minute a human being stops growing in his mind, at that moment does he begin to surrender life.

Keep filling your life with interests. Interests enrich your very lifeblood and keep ringing in your ears the eternal fact that all worthwhile efforts contribute to the measure of your character.

But place no limits. They will loom before you, undoubtedly, time and time again, but walk right past them.

Be the thing you most desire—by working at it during every waking moment of your life.

You will smile as you see each threatening mile-post, that looked like a barrier, pass into the distance, into memory.

You can win right where you are. But you must be interested in what you do and you must give the best that is in you to the work that you do.

Expect to meet every emergency that shall arise—and you will meet it. All limits will then vanish as new dew under the bright summer sun.

LOVE LOST AND GAINED

Beware, young man, the vows she makes,

That ring so sweet and true,

Are vows that she so quickly breaks

When she comes to view.

She swears she'd love no one but me,

Oh, none but me, she said;

But now another one you see

Has turned her heart and head.

He came into our lives so sly

We little thought it strange,

Till suddenly it seemed that I

Was forced to note the change.

Resent it? Ah, that wouldn't do

At all, because you see

I've come to love the stranger, too.

And he? Well, he loves me.

And so beware, young man,

though she

Protests that she'll be true;

The change that now has come to me

Perhaps will come to you.

And though her heart you then must share,

As I at last have done,

The loss is never hard to bear

If you have gained a son.

BILLY GRAHAM SAYS REDS MAY HAVE CHEATED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Billy Graham says he has spoken to close friends in high government positions and learned there is a possibility "Russia was already cheating and has created the neutron bomb—the ultimate weapon."

Dr. Graham apparently referred to cheating during the ban on nuclear testing which was lifted by the Russians Wednesday. In Moscow it was reported Thursday that the testing of a super-nuclear bomb by the Soviet Union is expected almost immediately by Western diplomats.

Speaking Thursday night to another overflow crowd at Convention Hall estimated at 14,500, Dr. Graham said there is a possibility of "an ultimatum of surrender or else."

Officials of the Gettysburg Travel Council met Tuesday afternoon at Harrisburg with Governor David L. Lawrence for the signing of tourist promotion grants for agencies throughout the state including the local Travel Council. The Governor signed grants totaling $182,969 representing one-half the amounts the state plans to provide as matching funds for the travel agencies during the year. Gettysburg receives $2,595 as its original allocation.

In signing the grants Lawrence said:

"The grants are a major boost to the economy of our local communities and the state as a whole. The travel industry has become one of Pennsylvania's greatest and most historic industries. Because I have always believed that our natural and historic sites are among the state's most valuable assets, I am happy to initiate this program as the first of its kind in Pennsylvania history."

Shown above are, standing, William Warren and Marshall Tuckey, vice presidents of the local Travel Council; seated, William Davlin, state secretary of commerce; Governor Lawrence and A. Kenneth Dick, president of the Gettysburg Travel Council.

NEW YORK (AP)—Complete automation of stock market tabulation to permit greater speed, accuracy and efficiency is planned by The Associated Press.

In place of the present manual operations, the job of collecting and updating quotations from the nation's major financial centers will be done by an electronic computer, tentatively scheduled for installation by December, 1962.

"The computer will operate with more versatility and accuracy than is possible under even the highest standards of present manual operations," said Frank J. Starzel, AP general manager.

IN MICROSECONDS

"Tabulations of stock changes will be performed as required in microseconds, almost simultaneously with punching tape for transmission. Trading volume many times greater than that of the heaviest days yet experienced can be handled with ease."

The computer was jointly developed by The Associated Press and International Business Machines Corporation.

The computer is the latest step by The Associated Press to apply the newest technological developments to the compilation and transmission of stock tables in a time of expanded newspaper coverage and rising reader interest.

QUICK DELIVERY

It will be able to "read" information on trading activity in the various exchanges at a 10,000 word a minute pace and permit delivery of end-of-day tables to newspapers almost simultaneously with the close of the ticker.

The Associated Press now serves 97 per cent of the daily newspapers, which, according to New York Stock Exchange surveys, publish complete "big board" tables.

YANKS SPANK
TIGERS 1-0 IN LAST FRAME

By ED WILKS

The New York Yankees, breaking through against Don Mossi on three consecutive singles by Elston Howard, Yogi Berra and Bill Skowron with two out in the ninth, defeated Detroit 1-0 Friday night and took a 2½ game lead over the Tigers in the American League race.

Whitey Ford, who had to call it quits in the fifth because of a strained hip muscle, Bud Daley and Luis Arroyo blanked the second place Tigers on seven hits.

While the Yankees and Tigers, now all square for the season (6-6), drew the year's top single-game crowd, 65,566 at New York, Cleveland knocked off Baltimore 5-4; the Chicago White Sox split a pair at Washington, winning 3-2, then losing 5-1; Minnesota topped Boston 5-1, and Los Angeles beat Kansas City 6-4.

MANTLE FANS TWICE

Skowron's winning hit for the Yankees followed singles by Elston Howard and Berra. Mickey Mantle, who twice took called third strikes, now is exactly even with Babe Ruth's record-60 home run pace of 1927 with 48. Roger Maris, with 51, is only five games ahead of Ruth.

Cleveland ruined Lum Harris' debut as interim Orioles manager as Vic Power drove in three runs with a pair of singles and scored the winning run on a balk by Chuck Estrada (11-8). Barry Latham (11-4) was the winner.

Minnie Minoso's sixth-inning single drove in the clincher as the White Sox and Cal McLish (10-12) beat Ed Hobaugh (6-8) and handed the Senators their 14th consecutive defeat in the opener. Washington then ended the AL's longest losing string of the season behind the six-hit pitching of Joe McClain (8-14). Billy Pierce (7-8) was the loser.

A two-run triple by Zoilo Versalles in the second inning off Don Schwall (13-4) wrapped it up for the Twins and Pete Ramos (10-16). Six consecutive hits and a sacrifice fly by starting pitcher Eli Grba gave the Angels five runs in the fourth inning against the A's and beat Norm Bass (7-10). Tom Morgan (7-2) was the winner in relief.

PALMER, POTT
TIED AT 67 IN DALLAS OPEN

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The expected happened in the $30,000 Dallas Open Friday — Arnold Palmer and Earl Stewart were tied for the first round lead with a 3-under-par 67.

Johnny Pott, the defending champion, did the unexpected when he also deadlocked for the top with 67.

Stewart seldom plays but he always tried in his own tournament, since he is the Oak Cliff Country Club pro. In three previous tournaments he led part of the time and wound up with a big chunk of the money.

So it was not surprising when Stewart, who knows every inch of the 6,800-yard course, particularly the tricky greens, had himself a great putting day to tie for the lead. He had 11 1-putt greens and only 23 putts in all.

BANGS THREE BIRDIES

Pott made a great finish to tie for the lead, banging birdies in succession on 12, 13 and 14 to wind up with a 32 on the back nine. This was the lowest score for the stretch during the day. Pott had been the forgotten man when pre-tournament predictions were made. It was all Palmer, Gary Player and Doug Sanders, the first three men in the money race.

Polo Championship
Opens On Sunday

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's polo boosters begin a novel convention and world series of polo Sunday with the opening game of the U.S. National Open Polo Championship.

More than 200 players and polo experts are expected to attend the convention and games at the Oak Brook Polo Club west of Chicago. Paul Butler, owner and impresario of Oak Brook, is host for the games and convention. His Sunranch-Oak Brook team is one of six entered in the series.

The others are: Solo Cup, captained by Leo Hulseman of Chicago; Beaver Ridge Farm, captained by A. D. (Don) Beveridge of Detroit and Boca Raton, Fla.; Milwaukee, captained by Bob Ulein; Royal Palm, captained by Bert Beveridge of Royal Palm, Fla.; and Tulsa-Aiken, captained by John Oxley of Tulsa, Okla., and Aiken, S.C.

Eastern League

The top three places in the Eastern League have been decided so in the last three days of the 1961 season the scramble will be for fourth place which is up for grabs.

The Springfield Giants clinched first place earlier in the week. Friday night the Williamsport Grays, last year's champion, clinched second with a 4-3 victory over Johnstown as Springfield defeated third-place Binghamton 9-4 to knock the Trips out of contention for second.

But Binghamton has a 14-game lead over fourth-place Johnstown which makes it impossible for the Red Sox to catch the Trips.

In the only other game Friday night, fifth-place Lancaster defeated Reading 12-11 to gain a full game on Johnstown and trail the Red Sox by only a half game. Reading is in last place but still could move up since the Indians trail Lancaster by only a game.

Tonight's Schedule
Binghamton at Springfield
Reading at Lancaster
Williamsport at Johnstown.

GIANTS, CARDS
DODGERS WIN;
PHILLIES IDLE

By ED WILKS

The Los Angeles Dodgers, with Maury Wills and John Roseboro each batting in two runs, defeated Milwaukee 4-3 last night and climbed within 2½ games of idle Cincinnati again in the National League race.

That dropped the Braves back to fourth place as San Francisco reclaimed third with a 4-3, 14-inning victory at Chicago. The St. Louis Cardinals rapped Pittsburgh 8-4 in the only other NL game scheduled.

The Dodgers, blowing a 3-1 lead after coming from behind, squared their season series with the Braves at 9-9 on Roseboro's tie-breaking single in the ninth. It followed a walk and a sacrifice and beat Don McMahon (6-2) in relief. Dick Farrell (8-6) was the winner in relief, after giving up the Braves' tying run in the eighth with two wild pitches.

Curt Flood, Alex Grammas and Jim Schaffer each drove in two runs for the Cardinals, who won their 13th in a row at home while beating Joe Gibbon (10-9). Right-hander Larry Jackson (11-9) checked the Bucks on eight hits — three by Smoky Burgess, who belted a two-run homer.

The Giants tied it 3-3 in the eighth with an unearned run and then won it on a two-out triple by rookie Ernie Bowman off Don Elston (6-6) in the 14th. Billy Loes (6-5) was the winner as the last of six Giant pitchers who blanked the Cubs over the last 12 frames.

USLTA GIVEN
ANOTHER BLAST
FROM M'KINLEY

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Chuck McKinley, America's top hope in the National Tennis Championships, today blasted the United States Lawn Tennis Association for the way they:

1. Handled the Dennis Ralston case.
  2. Arranged the preliminary Davis Cup rounds.
- McKinley, second seeded behind Australia's Rod Laver, marched into the second round with a 7-5, 6-2, 6-2 victory over George Stoeser of Tucson, Ariz., Friday as the 10-day nationals got under way in the West Side Tennis Club.

"RIDICULOUS"
"There is only one word to describe the action of the USLTA against Ralston—it's ridiculous," said McKinley. The USLTA suspended Ralston, who along with McKinley and Tui Bartzen made up the U.S. Davis Cup team, for unprofessional conduct in the North American Zone final against Mexico two weeks ago.

"I'm the voice of experience on these things," said McKinley. (He is on probation for arousing the ire of the USLTA in Australia last year.)
"And I know how Dennis feels. He gave everything he had and they suspend him."
PLAYED IN CLAY
"I know just what happened. He cursed exactly once. They accused him of turning his back on the Mexican captain when he offered him a towel. Dennis didn't even see him approach. I was standing right there."

McKinley also said he and Ralston would have had an easier time against the Mexicans if the match had been played on grass instead of clay.
"Now," he said, "I see they're thinking of playing India in the next round on clay in India. They say the members of the India team have obligations at home. They have so many obligations that they're playing all over Europe now."

HAS OBLIGATIONS
"Did it ever occur to the USLTA that we have obligations too? I'm behind in my schoolwork at Trinity (Tex) University now. If I got into a real jam, I'd just tell them I couldn't play, so sorry."

"And everyone is asking what's wrong with tennis?"
The lower half of the first round was completed Friday with no surprises. McKinley is ranked No. 2, behind Laver, who doesn't get into action until Sunday.
Roy Emerson, No. 3, Laver's Aussie Davis Cup teammate, whipped Ed Rubinoff of Miami Beach, 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. Bob Mark, No. 5, another Aussie, dropped Herb Fitzgibbon of Garden City, N.Y., 6-2, 6-1, 6-0, and Ron Holmberg, No. 8 of Brooklyn, turned back Mike Green of Philadelphia 6-4, 6-4, 7-5.

HOLD JUDGESHIP HEARING
WASHINGTON (AP) — A public hearing is scheduled Sept. 12 on President Kennedy's nomination of Philadelphia's Joseph S. Lord III and Abraham L. Freedman to judgeships in the U.S. District Court for Eastern Pennsylvania.
Lord is present U.S. attorney for that district. Freedman is a former Philadelphia city solicitor.

SHIPPENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Skin divers have recovered the body of a second teen-ager who drowned earlier this week when two make-shift boats sank in the waters of a dam near here.
The body of 16-year-old Robert L. Rebuck Jr. was found Friday night. Searchers discovered the body of his companion, Miles Devor, 19, also of Shippensburg, Thursday night.

Four giant "Bullets" who are expected to cause a lot of trouble during the 1961 campaign are "released" by members of the Gettysburg College football coaching staff during a "dry run." Those taking to the air include fullback Rich Bainbridge (far left); tackle Bill Sarvis (top); guard Dick Wix (44), and end Phil Wargo (85). Howard Shoemaker (left), backfield coach, helps chief pilot Gene Haas (center) fire a few rounds while the sound seems to be too much for line coach Jack Ridinger. Downs Plans Big
Labor Day Card

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. — More than 175 horses representing approximately 35 owners and trainers will be in action at Shenandoah Downs on Labor Day, competing in 18 races that make up the traditional holiday double-header. They will be sharing in a purse exceeding $20,000 for the day and night cards.

The night track here will be staging its third Labor Day racing doubleheader, a tritrit starting in 1959, Shenandoah's inaugural year. As on past holidays, there will be two complete racing cards of nine races, two daily doubles and two Big Bonanzas.
As in past years, also, there will be only one admission charge for the entire day and night. The afternoon card begins at 2 and the evening program at 7, with an hour intermission between.

HARRIS WILL PILOT ORIOLES
THRU SEASON

BALTIMORE (AP) — General manager Lee MacPhail indicated today the Baltimore Orioles would seek a replacement for manager Paul Richards from another major league club.
"We probably won't talk to anyone until after Oct. 1 (the end of the current season)," MacPhail said. "Everyone whom we might consider is under contract."

He also said the club was willing to pay the price necessary to land the man it wants, explaining the club contemplated "no re-trenchment" after the departure of Richards.

Richards was in the first year of a three-year contract calling for about $50,000 a year. The 52-year-old Texan left the team Friday to become general manager of the Houston Colts, who will join the expanded National League in 1962.

Oriole coach Luman Harris was named interim manager for the remainder of the season.
MacPhail said the 1962 job was "wide open" and that Harris possibly could be signed for another year. But there already is speculation that Harris will join Richards at Houston.

Richards announced his resignation Tuesday, but had been expected to finish the season with Baltimore. After the team returned from a road trip Friday, however, a conference was held and the club announced his resignation would be accepted immediately "in the interest of everyone concerned."

"Paul was willing to continue," MacPhail said, "and I'm sure it wouldn't have affected his job on the field. But the increased publicity and speculation forced our hand."

14 LETTERMEN
AMONG BULLET
GRID HOPEFULS

Forty-eight prospective football candidates were on the Gettysburg College practice gridiron bright and early Friday morning to begin two weeks of rough, tough double sessions in preparation for the season's opener Saturday, September 16, against the University of Buffalo on the New Yorker's field.

Gettysburg will inaugurate the campaign a week early which means every minute must be utilized with intensive training. One thing in Coach Gene Haas' favor is the fact that the majority of the athletes returned in excellent condition.

Haas will have 14 lettermen to form his nucleus this season. Rich Bainbridge, Merion, and Terry Looker, Camp Hill, will handle the fullback chores. Jack Norwood, Baltimore, and Joe Hiden, Springfield, Pa., are the only vets at halfback while Earl Little is the Bullets' two-year letterman at quarterback.

LINE RETURNEES
Phil Wargo, Shamokin, and Harry Richter, Bethlehem, are seasoned ends, with Dick Fullner, Manheim; Bill Sarvis, Tappan, N. Y., and Tom Shriener, Lancaster, strengthening the tackles. Gary Kerr, York, and Bob Coble, Pittsburgh, will handle the guards while Bob Duncan, Dover, Del., and Joe Wang, Philadelphia lead the experienced centers.

Four of the Bullets' candidates are products of area high schools. Little, Bob Furney and Bob Nelson played for Gettysburg High School while Vance Johnston, quarterback, was a standout for Biglerville High School.

Gettysburg will conduct morning workouts from 9 to 11:30 and will be back on the field from 3 to 6 p.m.

GREEN STAMPS IDEA STARTED
AS SHOE TRADE

SEVERNA PARK, Md. (AP) — Back in 1896, Shelby B. Hutchinson was faced with a dying retail shoe business. So he started offering stamps redeemable for gifts.

He saved his shoe business alright and in the process he also created the lucrative monster known as trading stamps.
After reviving his shoe store in Jackson, Mich., Hutchinson joined with Thomas Sperry to make the stamps-for-premiums idea a nation-wide success as S & H Green Stamps.

STAMP BOOMS
Now 96, Hutchinson can recall some fabulous booms in trading stamps "but nothing to match the craze that has swept the country in the last decade and is continuing at a steady pace."

And the boom is not likely to stop. While some government officials and business groups have criticized the green stamp, it still attracted 40 million families last year.
Some of the uses for them have approached the bizarre, Hutchinson admits.

For instance, a Florida minister offers members of his church five green stamps each for attending Sunday evening services. Utah private school received three school buses for 7,708,000 stamps.

"And when I started the business, we gave customers pictures and books — a fairly simple exchange," Hutchinson recalls.

COWBOYS LACE
COLTS 35 TO 24
FRIDAY NIGHT

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Dallas Cowboys, only one-year-old but thriving on the formula prepared by coach Tom Landry, are beginning to make menacing gestures in the National Football League.

The Cowboys, who came into existence last year and wound up with 11 losses and one tie, have accomplished an amazing flip-flop by winning two of four exhibition games. Their latest was a 35-24 walloping of the Baltimore Colts Friday night.

Landry, a stern tactician and highly rated strategist who came to the Cowboys from the New York Giants, installed former Southern Methodist star Don Meredith at quarterback against the Colts and he responded with four touchdown passes.

HITS 15 OUT OF 26

Usually alternated with veteran Eddie LeBaron, Meredith ran the Cowboys throughout, connecting on 15 of 26 passes for 224 yards in a fine performance climaxed by a 35-yard TD toss to Dick Bierski in the third quarter.

In the only other NFL pre-season test, San Francisco whipped Los Angeles 38-20. Boston's Patriots edged Buffalo 15-12 and Houston thumped Denver 42-10 in American League games.

Trailing 20-17 in the third quarter, the 49ers won it on a pair of payoff pitches by rookie Billy Kilmer. Kilmer fired a 10-yarder to Monte Stickles, then connected on a 66-yarder to Bernie Casey after the Rams had pulled ahead on Zike Bratkowski's 45-yard TD pass to Red Phillips and a 73-yard punt return by Jon Arnett.

In games today, St. Louis is at Detroit, Minnesota meets Chicago at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Washington tackles Philadelphia at Bristol, Tenn., and Cleveland takes on Pittsburgh at Akron, Ohio.

Good Start Is Important For Young Dairy Calves

By FRANK S. ZETTEL
Adams County Farm Agent

Getting dairy calves off to a good start is an important consideration for every dairyman. In many cases young dairy calves do not thrive simply because of inadequate housing.

FRANK S. ZETTEL

Two important principles of calf housing are often violated. For best results, calves can thrive under rather cold conditions if their pens are kept dry and free from drafts.

Individual elevated calf stalls provide excellent dry and draft-free quarters for dairy calves. When calf stalls are elevated and have slatted or wire mesh floors, moisture can drain away readily. Individual stalls also help to prevent the spread of calfhood diseases.

PLANT RESISTANT WHEAT

The Hessian fly is the most destructive insect enemy of wheat in the United States. The Adams County farmers have been fortunate for the past several years in that Hessian fly damage to their wheat has not been excessive. However, this pest can be expected to cause damage at irregular intervals of approximately every five or six years, and wheat growers should practice control measures every year. Once the Hessian fly has infested a wheat field, it is too late to apply control measures.

The planting of Hessian fly resistant varieties is gaining popularity in Pennsylvania. The varieties "red coat" and "dual" have exhibited much resistance to this insect, and yields have been acceptable to the wheat growers.

Another practical and effective method of avoiding fall infestations on wheat by the Hessian fly is to delay seeding until most of the fall brood of this insect has disappeared. The safe seeding date, or "fly-free date," for Adams County is October 1.

SEED TREATMENT PAYS

Grain seed treatment pays. Materials now available will effectively control bunt or stinking smut of wheat, covered smut of barley, and the oat smuts. They also help reduce seedling blights, and get young grain plants off to a good start.

Grain seed treatment materials cost only a few cents per acre, and they have repeatedly increased and they have repeated increases by several bushels per acre.

Apply seed treatment materials according to the recommendations on the label because rates vary with each chemical. It is important to follow these instructions precisely. Treatment at lower rates, or with poor distribution of the material, give greatly reduced efficiency. Over-treatment can lead to injury, especially with seed of high moisture content. Injury is not a factor where the treatment material is applied according to the instructions on the label.

Treatment materials are colored and give a typical color, red or pink, to the treated grain. This is a safety factor so that treated seed can be recognized. This seed must not be fed or sold for feed or food purposes. Nationally, every year, there are a few instances where food and drug inspectors find a trace of treated grain in feed shipments and condemn the entire lot. This is the result of carelessness, or worse, for the colored grain is easily recognizable.

Leaflet 196, available at the county agent's office, lists the effective materials and suggestions for their use. It also describes the method of hot water and cold soak treatments, the only means of control of loose smut of wheat and loose smut of barley. Certified seed wheat and barley is low in loose smut only because its foundation seed parents were hot water treated.

FARM CALENDAR

Timely Reminder from the Pennsylvania State University College of Agriculture

Keep Eggs Clean—Two or three inches of clean, dry shavings in nests in the laying house help prevent breakage and keep eggs clean, says F. H. Leuschner, Penn State extension poultry specialist. He also suggests frequent gathering of eggs, and wiring the droppings boards.

Reduce Rust—Farm machines can rust out quicker when neglected than they can wear out under normal usage with good care. Burton S. Horne, Penn State extension agricultural engineer, urges farmers to use rust preventive on frictioning parts when machines are not in use.

Eliminate Moss—Moss doesn't make a good lawn. In fact, John Harper, Penn State extension agronomist, says the presence of moss indicates something's wrong. Causes may be low fertility, poor drainage, high soil acidity, improper watering, too much shade, packed soil, or a combination of these factors.

Plants Need Leaves—Trimming leaves from tomato plants, and tips of squash, muskmelon and watermelon plants with the idea it puts added growth into the fruit is a very wrong practice, cautions J. O. Dutt, Penn State extension vegetable gardening specialist. A good growth of green leaves is one of the best signs of a healthy garden.

Plant Trees—If the U. S. is to have the timber it needs in 40 years from now, now is the time for planting trees, says E. P. Farrand, Penn State extension forester. The key to adequate future timber supplies lies with small timber land owners such as farmers, businessmen, and retired people, who own most of the commercial forest lands.

"We Have the Facts, Let's Use Them," by Mrs. Donald Roemer. The minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report given. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Donald Roemer; vice president, Mrs. Hermie Worley; secretary, Mrs. Ethel Wonders; treasurer, Mrs. Lloyd Decker. The offering amounted to $8.84.

Parents Should Let Their Children Take On More Of Household Responsibility

FARM PAGE — PARENTS
MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

"Mother, you always tell me to do something just as I'm going to do it," said a nine-year-old girl. "Please let me think of it myself."

Mrs. Tunison

Does this happen in your home? If so, there's a pretty good chance you could improve relations between you and your child by changing your ways. Like an adult, a child becomes discouraged if he's always reminded to do a job that he had already decided to do. When he's reminded, a child feels his parents don't give him credit for thinking about anything himself or that they have no faith in him. Parents frequently tell children they should take more responsibility, but continually reminding them to do a job does not encourage responsibility.

It is far better to keep still and wait to see whether your child is going to do a chore than to remind him about it. But keeping still requires restraint and thoughtfulness. It isn't easy when there is much to do and you're in a hurry.

MAKE PLANS AHEAD

One way to get chores done smoothly is to make plans ahead. Write down jobs so both you and your child understand what is expected. Have your child cross or check off jobs as he does them. Making a list of jobs isn't a trick to get more work out of your child. When he knows what needs to be done and he can do it at his own pace, he feels more adult and develops self-respect and respect for you. Putting the responsibility for getting a job done in the hands of your child, makes him feel useful and he will show more pride in his work.

RETIREMENT HOUSE

As children grow up and leave home, it might be well for parents to think about buying or building a smaller house. Safety is important in choosing a retirement house. Use these suggestions as guides for planning a retirement house.

Plan living, work, and sleeping areas on the same floor level. Place handrails on both sides of all steps, inside and out. Use skid-resistant materials for all floors.

Plan wide hallways and doors, especially if there's a wheelchair patient in the family.

Lee and Shirley Hoffman, Dillsburg, spent several days at Bradley Beach, N. J.

David Roemer arrived home from Indiana Technical College, Fort Wayne, Ind., for a vacation with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Donald Roemer. George Buchanan, Wilshire, O., a classmate accompanied him here but has since returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and children, Russell and Denyse, have returned to their home in Anderson, Ind., after spending the week with the former's mother, Mrs. Josie Miller.

The baskets of flowers in the Methodist Church were from the family of the late Rev. Mark Herman. Altar flowers were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Potts.

unusual designs. To counted the laminated plastic trend, some manufacturers are offering genuine wood veneers with insets of marble, tile, and ceramic designs. The insets help protect the table from wet glasses and coffee stains. And there is a new finish on the market that helps protect wood veneers.

It's not always possible to tell furniture by its finish. There is now a hardwood labeling bill before Congress. If it passes, manufacturers will be required to label all furniture clearly. Then we will know if the furniture we buy has a hardwood veneer or a laminated plastic finish by just reading the label.

In Memoriam

MILLER: In sad remembrance of our mother, Carrie B. Miller, who departed this life, 5 years ago, September 3, 1956.

A picture we see of a beautiful face,
Reflecting an image of heavenly grace—
A picture which shows many traces of care,
And yet an expression of sweetest love there.

The work of an artist, the loveliest art—
A picture of "Mother" that is framed in our hearts;
And though she has crossed to her haven of rest,
Sweet memories of Mother lie wrapped in our breasts.

The spring of her footsteps again we can see,
Her voice we hear, saying, "My dears, follow me."
No artist can paint us a picture so fair,
It takes a true mother, her love, faith and prayer.

SADLY MISSED BY HER CHILDREN

BRANDT SAYS PARTY PLANS MERGED UNIT

By JOHN O. KOEHLER
BONN, Germany (AP)—West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt said Friday that because of the tense world situation his Socialist party will form a national government representing all parties if they win the Sept. 17 general elections in West Germany. But, he added, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will be excluded.
Brandt told a news conference all the political strength of the country had to be combined in the face of the "general political assaults of the Soviet Union" against the West.
He said he would exclude Adenauer, the Christian Democratic party's candidate against him for chancellor, because of "the present structure of his behavior." This apparently was a reference to Adenauer's recent campaigning, climaxed by a speech earlier in the week in which he claimed Soviet Premier Khrushchev started the Berlin crisis to help the Socialists win the coming election.
Such blasts as these by Adenauer, who has been chancellor for a dozen years, appeared to be worrying his own party.
With the election only 16 days away, Adenauer has been smashing into the Socialist opposition and their candidate Brandt. Some of his associates fear the attacks might backfire against the 85-year-old Adenauer, whose Christian Democrats started out a

Hart Named Head Of State Postmen

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Hugh H. Hart of East Waterford is the new president of the Pennsylvania Branch of the National League of Postmasters.
At the same time Thursday, Thelma Kelley of Briar Hill, was elected first vice president and Thomas J. Duncan of Edinburg second vice president.
Re-elected were Fay B. Higgins, of Paxtonville, secretary-treasurer, and Julia M. McClusky, of New Bedford, membership director.
Lewis W. Cordell, of Marion, Franklin County, received an award for outstanding postmaster of the year.
The Pennsylvania branch met in conjunction with the 58th annual convention of the National League of Postmasters.

State Approves Technical Schools

HARRISBURG (AP)—A bill providing for establishment of area technical schools for vocational education by second and third class school districts was approved unanimously by the Senate Friday and returned it to the House for agreement on technical changes.
Sent to Gov. Lawrence on a vote of 49-0 was a bill designed to pave the way for the 14 state colleges to become liberal arts institutions.
Heavy favorite to win the election. There are rumblings of serious differences within Adenauer's party and the Socialists are smacking their lips, saying Der Alte—the Old One—couldn't be a better vote-getter for Brandt.
Adenauer has always been tough on his opponent. Once he referred to him as "Brandt alias Frahm." That was interpreted as a snide reference to Brandt's illegitimate birth, or as an implication of some deviousness when Brandt changed his name during his World War II exile.

Atlanta Schools Relax Measures

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A slight relaxation of security measures was planned Friday on the third day of desegregation at four closely guarded Atlanta public high schools.
School Supt. John Letson said Negro pupils would arrive at the same time as the white children at three of the schools. At the fourth they would continue to enter a few minutes late and leave a bit early.
"We are moving as rapidly as possible to see that these pupils are treated the same as anyone else," he said.
But no change was expected in the extensive police protection until after Labor Day. Then there may be a reassessment, the superintendent said.

Don Wilson Embarks On His 28th Year With The Famous Jack Benny Program

By CHARLES J. LEAVY

To those of us who are at least 39 years old, perennially so as Jack Benny or not, the radio broadcast of the 1930 Rose Bowl Game can well be remembered as a great event. The play-by-play description of this great annual sports event was being brought "live" to every corner of the United States via one of radio's pioneer networks. At the microphone was radio's greatest announcer, the late Graham McNamee. Certainly, many of us can look back to that day and many other days in the twenties and early thirties with more than a little tinge of nostalgia. However, how many remember that assisting Graham MacNamee in the play-by-play description that day in 1930 was none other than Don Wilson.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

Most people think of Don only as the fat, jovial announcer on "The Jack Benny Program." Since he is embarking on the 28th year as Jack's announcer both on radio and television, it is quite understandable that his other activities in the early days of radio are almost forgotten.

To be perfectly honest, when we interviewed Don at breakfast, we had no intentions of questioning him about his early career. However, when the subject did arise, Don rambled on with such enthusiasm that we followed along.

"Those early years in radio were intriguing, and I enjoyed them as much as the long years I've spent with Jack," Don said. Even at the breakfast table, we were impressed by his flawless diction for which he has won many awards since he first broke into radio.

WORKED WITH HUSING

"I worked with Ted Husing broadcasting the Pacific Coast Conference Games, and I want you to know I owe him a great deal for he helped me immeasurably," Don rambled on.

"If few people remember me as a sports announcer, I'm sure very few know I started as a singer in show business — made my radio debut in 1924," Don smiled.

"It wasn't very successful. I must admit for soon after the trio I sang with broke up, and I was stranded in San Francisco," Don continued.

This end of Don's singing career was a most fortunate occurrence for he struck out for Los Angeles and literally talked his way into an announcing job on a local station. He was featured in a program called "Big Brother Don," a children's hour. These years of experience in early radio proved most fortunate for Wilson because he got his job on the Benny Program (in 1933) by auditioning and proving himself better than the competition — not by being the jolly fat man who pealed laughter at Benny's every word.

DUE TO MISTAKE

However, Don tells us all these happy years with Jack would never have come about if it were not for a mistake.

When Wilson was an announcer in the late twenties he worked for a Los Angeles radio station owned by a man who also operated a major automobile agency. Failing to get satisfaction from the agency on the purchase of a car, he bought one from a rival dealer, who also owned a competing radio outlet.

"I thought my boss would burst a blood vessel when he heard about it," Wilson recalls. "He called me on the carpet, bawled me out for 20 minutes and then fired me."

Wilson returned the car to the seller, explaining that he could not afford to pay for it because he was out of a job.

"I WAS FLABBERGASTED"

"I was flabbergasted," Wilson says, "when he told me to keep the car, then put me on the payroll at his own station."

Wilson's work so impressed network officials that he was offered a staff announcer's job in New York City.

"I took it, of course," says Wilson, "and within a few months I auditioned for and won the announcer's job on Jack's show."

"But I certainly had no idea the job would last so long. And I never would have got the job at all if I hadn't bought the wrong car from the wrong man back there in the twenties."

Certainly Don's many successful years with Jack Benny were no mistake. The Waukegan Wit endlessly kids him about his weight, and Don's hearty good acceptance of the joshing has endeared him to millions. His inimitable handling of the commercials, too, has made that part of the program a model of effective treatment of advertising copy.

If you're heating a ready-to-eat ham, score the fat and insert a clove in each "diamond" before the meat goes into the oven.

David Brinkley, spotlighted Monday through Fridays on the NBC-TV "Huntley-Brinkley" report, recalls the time he became involved with an elephant while describing an inaugural parade. The animal, named Miss Burma, wasn't exceptional except for the fact that she drank one quart of whiskey daily in a bucket of hot water.

Brinkley, somewhat intrigued by this, described the feeding and diet for several minutes while Miss Burma lurched across TV screens. So extensive was his commentary that he didn't have time to mention a group of marchers from Jackson, Mich. The next day the Jackson papers protested Brinkley's omission under the headline: We Wus Robbed."

For sea food and dairy products, the Norwegians take the lead for variety in their cooking. An endless variety of fish is served in an endless variety of ways. Meat plays a secondary role in their diet. Their smorgasbord is, of course, a hit in our country. It can be simple or elaborate, according to taste, consisting of small dairy sandwiches, meat balls, cheese, eggs and, of course, an endless variety of fish dishes. # TV Tidbits

Today's silly comes from Tom Poston of "To Tell the Truth" who is undoubtedly not telling the truth when he mentions the poet who got a rejection slap from his girl and threw himself into the waste basket!

Henry Morgan of "I've Got A Secret" says child psychology is knowing when to be a doting parent and when to be a don'ting parent!

Joe Hamilton of Bob Banner Associates, producers of the "Garry Moore Show," is the father of seven children. Recently, he asked one of his youngsters how many children he would have when he was big and married. "How should I know," replied the boy. "I can't even count yet!"

A comedian, who has been an in and out in TV, was recently signed for a special. He met Mitch Miller and told him about the job.

"But," he complained, "the money they're giving me is chicken feed."

"Mayben" surmised Mitch, "It's because in the past you've laid so many eggs!"

Tom Poston and Bud Collyer of "To Tell the Truth" were discussing traffic safety before going on the air. Collyer opined that there must be some way to cut down on the enormous number of traffic accidents.

Observed Poston, "The only time we can cut down on them is when someone gets around to inventing a car that will go no faster than the driver can think!"

ADMITS BEING SCOOPED:

David Brinkley, the Washington half of the Huntley-Bringley news team, admits to being "scooped" on a news story. It happened to him when he was covering the political conventions in Chicago back in the 50's.

"I was doing the commentary on film that had just been shot," recalls Dave. "And I looked at the monitor only to find pictures of my new baby son, whom I'd never seen. The film had been shot in Washington on the previous night and some of the staff flew it to Chicago to surprise me."
